INTRODUCTION

This report has been compiled and published pursuant to I.C. 33-2.1-7-3 which provides, in part, that the Division of State Court Administration shall collect and compile statistical data on the judicial work of the courts in the state and shall prepare and publish reports on the nature and volume of the judicial work performed by the courts. The period of time covered by the following report is calendar year 1981.

The information has been divided into two parts, caseload data and fiscal data. Where appropriate, each part has been broken down by court classification. Additional general information, consisting of a description of the judiciary, roster, manpower table and organizational chart, has been added to assist the reader in understanding the data which has been presented.

By statute and Supreme Court Rule, all courts, regardless of jurisdiction, must provide data to the Division of State Court Administration on the administrative aspects of their respective courts. The information published in this annual report relating to trial courts emanates from summary caseload data provided quarterly and summary fiscal data provided annually. The caseload data relating to the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals is provided by their respective administative offices. The state-level fiscal data is derived from the annual report of the Auditor of the State.

In that summary data is being used, it should be noted that this report is not intended to be an exact accounting of funds or a punctilious detailing of every judicial decision. It is only presented as a reasonably accurate overview of the administrative aspects of the Indiana judiciary. As such, it is intended to be used by trial judges in evaluating their performance and monitoring the caseloads in their respective courts; by trial judges and county councils in the budgeting process; by the General Assembly and its Committees in their oversight of judicial administrative activities, and by the Indiana Supreme Court in meeting its superintendent responsibilities. Additionally the information published in this report is intended to provide a continuous factual basis for any long-term judicial planning in the State of Indiana.

INDIANA'S JUDICIAL SYSTEM

Article 3, Section 1 of the Constitution of Indiana provides:

> Three Departments - The powers of the Government are divided into three separate departments; the Legislative, the Executive including the Administrative, and the Judicial; and no person, charged with official duties under one of these departments, shall exercise any of the functions of another, except as in this Constitution expressly provided.

The judicial power of the State of Indiana is vested in a Supreme Court, a Court of Appeals, Circuit Courts, and such other courts as the General Assembly may establish.[1] The General Assembly has from time to time established other courts vesting them with specific powers. The Superior and County Courts are such legislatively created courts. The former have general trial jurisdiction while the county courts have more limited jurisdiction. Additionally there are city and town courts with even more limited jurisdiction. Specialized courts and additional tribunals with limited jurisdiction are found in the more populous counties.

SUPREME COURT

The Indiana Supreme Court consists of five justices, one of whom is the Chief Justice of the State (selected by the Indiana Judicial Nominating Commission).[2]

The Supreme Court has no original jurisdiction except in (a) admission to the practice of law; (b) discipline and disbarment of those admitted; (c) unauthorized practice of law; (d) discipline, removal, and retirement of judges; and (e) exercise of jurisdiction by other courts.

Its appellate jurisdiction includes appeals from judgments imposing a sentence of death, life imprisonment or imprisonment for a term greater than 10 years; cases where a state or federal statute has been declared unconstitutional; appeals from denial of release in habeas corpus cases arising out of criminal, extradition or mental health proceedings; and, on petition, cases involving substantial questions of law, great public importance, or emergencies.[3]

The justices are appointed by the Governor after nomination by a Judicial Nominating Commission. After an initial two-year term, they run on a "Yes--No" retention ballot, and, if successful, they then serve ten-year terms.

COURT OF APPEALS

The Court of Appeals became a constitutional court under a 1970 revision of the Constitution. The Judicial Article provides that the state be divided into geographic districts by the General Assembly, and that each district have three judges.[4] Presently, the court has four districts, with a total of twelve judges.[5] The twelve judges select one of their number as Chief Judge, and each district elects a Presiding Judge.[6] The Court of Appeals has no original jurisdiction except as authorized by Supreme Court rules to review directly final decisions of certain administrative agencies.[7] It has jurisdiction over all appeals not taken to the Supreme Court.

The judges of the Court of Appeals are selected in the same manner as the Supreme Court Justices.

CIRCUIT COURTS

The Indiana Constitution directs that the state be divided into several circuits by the General Assembly and that a judge be elected for each circuit.[8] Eighty-six, of a total of ninety-two counties, each constitute a circuit, while the remaining six counties are in three "joint" circuits with two counties each.

The Circuit Courts are vested with unlimited trial jurisdiction in all cases, except when exclusive or concurrent jurisdiction is conferred upon other courts. They also have appellate jurisdiction over appeals from City and Town Courts[9] and, in Marion County, from the Small Claims Courts.[10]

The Circuit Courts in twenty-one counties are required to maintain a small claims docket where civil claims of $1,500 or less and possessory actions between landlord and tenant, where the rent does not exceed $500 per month, may be filed. Cases on the small claims docket are heard under a more informal atmosphere and without a jury.[11] In the remaining counties, the small claims dockets have been established either in the Superior or County Court in the county. The caseload on the former small claims dockets is usually referred to as the "County Court Function" of the Circuit or Superior Court due to the establishment of most of these dockets under the 1975 County Court Law.

SUPERIOR COURT[12]

Superior Courts are created by the General Assembly one at a time as local judicial needs change. Though their organization and jurisdiction may vary from county to county, for the most part, they are courts of general jurisdiction. They have the same appellate jurisdiction as Circuit Courts over appeals from City, Town and Small Claims Courts.

As of December 31, 1981, there were ninety-six judges serving the Superior Courts of forty counties. Eighteen of these have more than one such court or division. In ten of the thirty-seven counties statutory language sets up one unified Superior Court with two or more judges; but several other counties, through internal rules, operate their courts as unified county systems. Fifteen counties have their small claims and minor offenses divisions within the Superior Court (Allen, Cass, DeKalb, Dubois, Hendricks, Jasper, Miami, Monroe, Newton, Ohio, St. Joseph, Switzerland, Vanderburgh, Warrick, and Wayne Counties.)[13] In Hendricks, Jasper, Monroe, Ohio, Switzerland and Vanderburgh Counties civil cases of up to $3,000 may be filed on the superior court small claims docket. Allen, St. Joseph and Vanderburgh Superior Courts have minor offenses dockets for all misdemeanors, Class D felonies, ordinances and infractions. The superior courts in the remaining counties have similar offenses dockets but they do not handle Class D felonies.

PROBATE COURT (St. Joseph County)

The St. Joseph Probate Court is the only specialized Probate Court left in Indiana. The Court has one judge and has original jurisdiction in all matters pertaining to the probate of wills, appointment of guardians, assignees, executors, administrators and trustees, settlements of incompetents' estates and adoptions.[14] The court also has exclusive juvenile jurisdiction.[15]

MUNICIPAL COURT (Marion County)

The territorial jurisdiction of the Marion County Municipal Court extends to the City-County consolidation of Indianapolis-Marion. The court has fifteen judges, fourteen of whom are trial judges, and one a presiding judge. It has concurrent jurisdiction with the Criminal Court in all Class D felonies, misdemeanors, infractions, and over local ordinance violations. The court has jurisdiction to issue warrants upon probable cause for misdemeanors and felonies committed in the county and to conduct probable cause hearings, to determine sufficiency of recognizance and surety in felony cases, and, upon probable cause determination, to bind such cases over to a court with felony jurisdiction. The court's civil jurisdiction is concurrent with the Superior and Circuit Courts in all civil cases founded on contract or tort which do not exceed $12,500, and, irrespective of the value of property, in possessory actions between landlord and tenant.[16] The court also has jurisdiction (in the mental health division only) to declare and administer temporary guardianships in conjunction with mental health proceedings involving voluntary and involuntary mental commitments. Appeals from the Municipal Court are taken to the Court of Appeals.[17]

COUNTY COURTS

In 1975, the General Assembly created a new system of County Courts to replace the Justice of the Peace Courts.[18] The County Courts began operating on January 1, 1976, when the majority of the Justice of the Peace Courts went out of existence. There are sixty-one County Court Judges in sixty-five courts, serving fifty-six counties, with some counties sharing a court,[19] and others having more than one.[20]

The County Court has original and concurrent jurisdiction in all civil cases founded in contract or tort where the damages do not exceed $3,000, possessory actions between landlord and tenant where the rent does not exceed $500 per month, all actions for the possession of property where the value of the property sought to be recovered does not exceed $3,000, Class D felonies, misdemeanor and infraction cases, violations of local ordinances and surety of the peace cases.[21] The County Court also has a small claims docket similar to that of the Circuit Court. However, cases of up to $2,000 may be filed on this small claims docket.[22]

The County Courts have been specifically precluded from exercising any jurisdiction over cases involving injunctive relief, partition of or liens on real estate, paternity, juvenile matters, probate, receivership or dissolution of marriage. It may conduct preliminary hearings in felony cases.[23]

Appeals from the County Court, including its small claims docket, go to the Court of Appeals in the same manner as appeals from the Circuit and Superior Court.

CITY AND TOWN COURTS

With the reorganization of Indiana's lower court structure, city and town courts were shceduled to go out of existance on December 31, 1979.[24] Since that time there have been several legislative amendments extending their term. A 1981 legislative amendment allows cities and towns to pass ordinances establishing such courts during 1982 and every four years thereafter. The same law also provides that any action taken before January 1, 1979, by a city or town to continue its city or town court until December 31, 1983, is validated and constitutes such establishment.[25]

A city or town which establishes or abolishes its court must give notice to the Office of State Court Administration.[26] There are seventy-five (75) city and town courts. Of these, ten appear to be inactive and do not provide any of the required reports.

Jurisdiction of city courts varies depending upon the size of the city. All city courts have jurisdiction of city ordinance violations, all misdemeanors and infractions.[27] The city courts have civil jurisdiction of cases where the amount of controversy does not exceed $500. They have no jurisdiction in actions for libel, slander, real estate foreclosure, where title to real estate is at issue, matters relating to decedent's estates, actions in equity and actions involving the appointment of guardians.[28] The civil jurisdiction of city courts in Lake County extends to cases where the amount in controversy does not exceed $2,500.[29] Such city courts also have extended criminal jurisdiction so that they may hear cases involving violations of all state statutes but can only impose a fine of up to $1,000 and impose a sentence of no more than one year.[30] City courts are not courts of record and appeals tried de novo are to the circuit or superior court of the county.[31] Appeals from the Lake County city courts require some assignment of error in that the filing of a motion to correct errors appears to be a prerequisite.[32]

Town Courts have exclusive jurisdiction of all violations of town ordinances and jurisdiction of all misdemeanors and infractions.[33] Appeals from judgments of a town court are also taken to the circuit or superior court of the county.[34]

SMALL CLAIMS COURTS (Marion County)

The Marion County Small Claims Court has eight divisions based on township lines and has territorial jurisdiction throughout the county. The court's trial jurisdiction is concurrent with the Circuit, Superior and Municipal Courts in all civil cases founded on contract or tort in which the claim does not exceed $2,000, in actions for possession of property where the value of the property sought to be recovered does not exceed $2,000 in possessory actions between landlord and tenant in which the past due rent at the time of filing does not exceed $2,000,[35] and cases requesting surety of the

25) IC 33-10.1-1-3, as added by Acts 1981, P.L. 282, as amended by Acts 1982, P.L. 33, SEC. 13. The 1982 amendment has deleted fourth and fifth class city courts from the indefinite extension. This amendment is effective 2/24/82. Acts 1978, P.L. 141, SEC. 9 extended the city courts until 12/31/83. In light of the 1982 amendment, it appears that, as of 2/24/82, only city courts in second and third class cities and towns are extended.

CASELOAD OF TRIAL COURTS

The trial court caseload data reflected herein was reported by the trial courts on a standard form (Quarterly Case Status Report) on a quarterly basis. These reports contain information on the cases filed (including those that come on a change of venue), disposed and pending at the end of the reporting period. This information is categorized by type of case, such as criminal, civil, dissolution, etc. The reports also show the method of disposition for the type of cases. Other matters, such as number of days with Judge Pro Tempore, number of trials disposed by Special Judges, number of cases heard or disposed by Masters, the use of Court Commissioner or Referee, and the number of days the Judge served in another County are also reported but are not refelcted in this report. The information submitted on a quarterly basis has been combined and is presented here as yearly totals.

The reports are divided into groupings for each classification of court; Circuit and Superior Courts, (including Juvenile, and Criminal Courts, and the St. Joseph Probate Court), County Courts, Municipal Courts, and the City, Town and Small Claims Courts. The County Court grouping includes the cases filed in the small claims and misdemeanor dockets of the Circuit and Superior Courts, where such dockets exist. This caseload is referred to as a "County Court Function" of the Circuit and Superior Courts.

As used in this report, the following definitions apply:

Criminal: This includes both misdemeanors and felony cases. Where multi-defendants are jointly charged and tried, only one criminal case is noted.

Re-Docketed Criminal: This includes those criminal matters which are reopened after an initial judgment is entered. An example of this type of case would be a proceeding under Post Conviction Remedy Rule 1.

Juvenile: This includes all juvenile matters where formal proceedings are initiated and such proceedings concern a minor.

Civil: This includes all civil cases other than dissolution, probate, adoption, or guardianship cases. In the County Courts and the "County Court Function" of the Circuit and Superior Courts, small claims are reported separately.

Re-Docketed Civil: Those civil matters which for some reason are again brought before the court following the entry of the initial judgment.

Dissolution: Cases where the parties seek to dissolve a marriage.

Re-Docketed Dissolution: Dissolution cases where the cause is brought before the court after the initial judgment. This would include petitions to modify and contempt citations.

Probate-Adoption: Those proceedings involving the distribution of estates or adoption of children. This would not include claims against an estate which are litigated; such matters are shown as "civil" cases.

Non-Felony Traffic: Cases where a traffic citation was issued.

Guardianship: This involves such matters as where a guardianship is opened under existing law of the State.

Others: This category is intended to include matters where an adjudication is made, but the full formalities of a trial are not involved. This would include probable cause determinations and committment proceedings.

The groupings are arranged in the following sequence:

1) Cases Pending on January 1, 1981;
2) New Filings during calendar year 1981;
3) Cases Venued in (where appropriate);
4) Cases disposed;
5) Method of dispositions;
6) Cases Venued out (where appropriate);
7) Cases Pending on December 31, 1981;

Please note that the grand totals do not include venued cases in that these totals are for the entire system and not for an individual court's activities.

TOTALS	409	397	246	12	38	8	93	0	304	7	51

*Includes both Direct Appeals as well as cases in which a Petition to Transfer has been filed in a Criminal Case and an Opinion has previously been issued by the Courts of Appeal; does not include cases in which a Petition to Transfer has been filed in Civil cases which are handled by the Supreme Court Administrator.

Also, this column indicates only the cases as initially distributed; it does not include those instances in which transfers of cases occur between Justices, where the Justice to whom the case was initially distributed cannot obtain a majority in support of his original draft of opinion, nor where cases are redistributed to equalize the caseload between Justices.

Pursuant to Internal Rules of Court, in the distribution of Direct Appeals, the Chief Justice is skipped every 3rd Round in such distribution.

Each of the three above Justices also Issued an Opinion on REHEARING, which three Opinions are not indicated in above totals.

FISCAL REPORT

Pursuant to a legislative directive[1] and Administrative Rules of the Indiana Supreme Court, the Office of State Court Administration collects statistical data on the receipt and expenditure of public moneys by and for the operation of the courts.

The information is gathered on an annual basis at the end of each calendar year on forms designed by this office. Beginning with 1980, revenue and expenditure reports are required from all trial courts, including the small claims and city and town courts. The requested data includes the court's requested and approved budgets for 1982, the actual expenditures for 1981, and the revenues collected during 1981 through the operation of such courts. This report, however, reflects only the actual expenditures and revenues.

The information contained herein is not intended and should not be used as an exact fiscal account. It is only intended to provide a relative overview of the financial aspects of the judicial system on a state-wide basis.

Following is a summary of the 1981 expenditures of the courts and revenues generated through their operation.

EXPENDITURES

The Circuit, Superior, Probate, County and Municipal Courts are supported primarily by county funds. State funds are used for a portion of the judges' salaries[2] and reimbursements to the county for special judge costs.[3] The city and town courts are supported by the municipality. In many instances there is no separate city or town court budget, and all expenses are paid directly from the local general fund. This practice makes it extremely difficult to provide accurate expenditure information. The Small Claims Courts of Marion County are supported by their respective townships.

Within twenty days following the end of a calendar year, each trial court is requestd to submit a report on the actual expenditures of the court. The reporting form follows reports filed with the State Board of Accounts and contains four major areas of expenditures. The city, town and small claims courts submit their budgets and expenditures on the same forms.

In some of the more populous counties, separate budgets may be maintained for probation, juvenile services or public defense. These expenditures have been included in the final totals.

Expenditures which have not been included in this report are those that are not budgeted for within the court's budget. Thus, expenses for the prosecutor and clerk of the county (which offices submit and operate their own budgets) are not included in this report. The acquisition and operation of physical facilities for juveniles (juvenile dentention centers), when distinguishable from temporary juvenile care, have also been excluded since such expenditures fall more appropriately under corrections-related expenditures rather than judicial functions.

REVENUES

The typical sources of revenues in the trial court are filing fees and fines. The fines and forfeitures are designated for a special state fund, the Common School Fund.[4] Effective September 1, 1981, many traffic violations were decriminalized and denominated as infractions. As such they are not punishable by fines but by civil judgments of up to $10,000. An infraction judgment is deposited with the State General Fund.[5] Any revenues collected as infraction judgments are included in the "OTHER" category but will be separated for the 1982 Report. Following is a list of the fees collected in the more typical cases.

1. The docket fee in typical civil cases in Circuit, Superior, Probate[6] and Municipal[7] Courts, and on the plenary docket of the County Court,[8] is twenty-three dollars ($23). Seven dollars ($7) of that sum go to the State General Fund as state docket fee; six dollars ($6) are deposited with the county general fund as clerk's service fee; and ten dollars ($10) constitute advance payment of costs for service of process by registered or certified mail. This fee is designated for a county police pension fund if one has been established in the county. If such fund does not exist the fee goes to the County General Fund. If such service is not effective, an additional ten dollar ($10) fee is charged for service of process by the sheriff and is deposited in the County General Fund.[9]

The docket fee for civil cases on the small claims dockets of the Circuit, Superior, and County Courts is ten dollars ($10) and goes to the County General Fund.[10]

The docket fee for civil cases in the city courts is five dollars ($5). A fee of two dollars ($2) is charged for each case received on a change of venue.[11]

2. When charges of infractions, misdemeanors or felonies are filed in the Circuit, Superior and Probate Courts, a ten dollar ($10) fee is charged upon conviction or judgment. Such fee is deposited with the County General Fund.[12] In criminal cases, infractions or violations of municipal ordinances in the Marion Municipal Courts a docket fee of fifteen dollars ($15) is charged. If the case involves a violation of an ordinance the fee is deposited in the City General Fund. Fees from other criminal and infraction cases are deposited in the County General Fund.[13]

In cases on the offenses docket or within the infraction jurisdiction of a county court or on the minor offenses docket of a circuit or superior court a stte docket fee and a county docket fee of five dollars ($5) each are charged.[14]

In the city and town courts a fee of ten dollars ($10) is charged in each case where a defendant is adjudged guilty of a violation of a statute or an ordinance. The docket fee is for the use and benefit of the city and town.[15]

3. A prosecutor's fee[16] of twenty dollars ($20) is charged in all criminal and infraction cases, except in felonies and Class A misdemeanors. Four dollars ($4) of this fee go to the County General Fund while the remainder of the fee is deposited in the State General Fund. Portions of the state deposit are distributed to designated funds: one dollar ($1) in a continuing law enforcement academy building fund and four dollars ($4) in the continuing law enforcement training fund.

In cases involving Class A misdemeanors or felonies, the prosecutor's fee is thirty-six dollars ($36). It is distributed as the fee of twenty dollars ($20) with the additional amount being earmarked for a violent crime victim's compensation fund ($15) and a rape victim services fund ($1). When the prosecutor is required to appear in non-criminal cases, twenty dollars ($20) is collected and deposited with the State Feneral Fund as "state counsel fees".[17] A municipal prosecutor's fee of twenty dollars ($20) is charged in ordinance violation cases. It is deposited in the general fund of the Municipal Corporation.[18]

4. In addition to the above fees, in any case in the Circuit, Superior, Probate and Municipal Court, and on the plenary docket of the County Court, a judicial fee of nine dollars ($9) is charged and paid to the state.[19] (Of this fee, $1.30 is deposited in a special retirement fund.) The judicial fee in cases on the criminal docket of the County Court, or the misdemeanor dockets of the Circuit and Superior Courts is one dollar ($1).[20]

This report reflects the fees listed above, service of process fees and jury fees.

The report also includes the revenues collected through a three dollar ($3) fee charged in all traffic cases for the Bureau of Motor Vehicles,[21] and a ten dollar ($10) fee charged for enforcement of support orders.[22] It does not reflect the sums paid into the County General Fund by other counties for cases coming to the court on change of venue.

5. Courts having misdemeanor jurisdiction may establish alcohol and drug service programs pursuant to special guidelines. When such a program has been established, the court may set an additional fee of not less than one dollar ($1) or more than five dollars ($5) which is added as part of the costs in all cases involving violations of state law or city ordinances filed in the county. This fee, when collected, is deposited in a special alcohol and drug services program fund.[23]

6. An additional fee of ten dollars ($10) is taxed as costs in all actions for dissolution of marriage. It is turned over to the
